2009 Grants - Deadline June 30th 2009

TERMS & CONDITIONS

1. The 2009 grant is open to experimental films, as well as experimental film installations and performances. Video projects or works intended to be finished on any digital format are not eligible for competition. Two grants, in the amount of 4,000 Euros each, will be awarded this year.
2. Films/Projects must have been completed in 2008.
3. There is no entry fee.
4. Works can be in any film format, no other media will be eligible for competition.
5. Film/Projects may be of any length.
6. These grants are open to all filmmakers, regardless of nationality, age, or place of residence.
7. The submission deadline is June 30th 2009. The winners will be notified before the end of September 2009.
8. The applicant must send:
 - a) completed and signed entry form (one per entry)
 - b) for films a DVD preview copy. For installations and/or performances, any documentation pertinent to the understanding of the project (e.g. DVD preview copy, photographs, diagrams, drawings, 3D models, etc.)
 - c) bio/resume
 - d) description of film/project
9. If your film reaches the final selection stage you may be asked to submit a film print for further selection purposes only. The film print will be returned. MoCC will be responsible for all shipping and insurance charges for film prints at this stage.

For installations and performances more information may be requested if the project reaches the final selection stage.
